And check out the video—how one megachurch inspires its people to pray for media on this strategic Sunday each year!

1. Thank you, Heavenly Father, that everyone in the arts, entertainment, and media who asks is “just one miracle away” from an eternal, personal relationship with You, the God of the Hebrew Scriptures and the New Testament.
2. Dear God, we ask that all award nominees this year will draw closer to You—whether they take home an award or not. And we pray that You would move closer to them . . . their families, friends, business associates, agents, managers, colleagues, and employees.
3. Almighty One, we pray for a mighty moving of Your Spirit throughout media, that those seeking You will find You, that the lost will be found, that the wounded and weary will be comforted, and those in darkness will live in Light.
4. Loving Lord, please infuse media's leaders with a strong, moral dimension and with a desire to use the global power of media to uplift, inspire, and unify.
5. Dear Father, please fill Christians in media with Your Spirit, that they might live exemplary lives and be engaged in the marketplace of ideas with loving integrity, grace and wisdom, and professional excellence.
6. Good Shepherd, we pray that Christian consumers of media will have godly self-control, both to resist impure negative media and to pray for the creators of the media they do watch, play, or hear.
7. God above all gods, we thank You for Your willingness to create a dramatic spiritual awakening among those in power in New York, Hollywood, and the other great media cities of the world.
